

Aruna's Story

Smt. Aruna Singh joined the Mahila Samiti in the year 2004. She belongs to a small village called "Hastam", one of the five villages "Param Pujya Gurudev" adopted.

She was devastated when her husband was sent to life imprisonment in the case of a murder. She had 5 daughters to take care off.

"I used to cry all day long, my in-laws threw me out of the house because I had five daughters." Seven years she struggled in Banda for job, but she was unable to a job to be relied upon. She then came to chitrakoot and applied for the job in Mahila Samiti. Here She was given the opportunity to be a part of front desk sales team as she was Graduate.

"With the Blessings of Gurudev" and immense support of Bhabhi ji (Smt. Usha B Jain), I have never looked back. The support which I got from them, half of it I never got it from my own family."

With the support of Mahila Samiti, she was able to provide quality education to her five daughters. Four of her daughters are nurses in government hospitals and one daughter is a school teacher in a government school.

"All of my daughters are married and settled with their family. Mahila Samiti and Bhabhiji has always supported me in every situation especially with my daughters' education and marriage. She always stood by us and helped advocate the marriage proposals of my daughters, as no family was ready to accept the daughter of the prisoner to be a part of their family."

Aruna is very devoted towards her work and responsibilities of "Mahila Samiti" and always volunteer ahead for new projects.

"I will always be indebted for the support and encouragement given by Smt. Usha B Jain".
